

ETHICS & COMPLIANCE STANDARDS FOR BAXTER SUPPLIERS

IT IS CRITICAL THAT ALL BAXTER SUPPLIERS SHARE OUR COMMITMENT TO BUSINESS WITH INTEGRITY

These standards apply to individuals/organizations that provide services, raw material, active ingredients, components, finished goods, or other products ("Suppliers").

ADHERENCE TO APPLICABLE LAWS & REGULATIONS

- Suppliers must comply with the applicable laws, rules, regulations, and ethical standards of the United States and the country in which they operate, as well as these standards.

PROHIBITION OF BRIBES, KICKBACKS, UNLAWFUL PAYMENTS, AND OTHER CORRUPT PRACTICES

- Suppliers are prohibited from directly or indirectly paying or providing anything of value to a government official in order to:
 - Win or retain business or to improperly influence the act or decision of any government official, political party, candidate for political office, or official of a public international organization;
 - Gain an improper advantage; or
 - Illegally influence the action of any individual, customer, company, or company representative.
- Suppliers are required to keep accurate and transparent records that reflect actual transactions and payments.
- While Baxter observes local business customs and market practices, neither Baxter nor any Supplier shall participate in any corrupt, unethical or illegal practices.
- Suppliers shall not do anything Baxter policies prohibit.

ACCURACY OF BUSINESS RECORDS

- All financial books and records must conform to generally accepted accounting principles.
- Supplier records must be accurate in all material respects:
 - Records must be legible, transparent, and reflect actual transactions and payments.
 - Do not hide, fail to record, or make false entries.
 - Records must be made available to Baxter per the terms and conditions of the agreement with the company.

INTERACTIONS WITH THE MEDICAL COMMUNITY

- When engaged with the medical community (including healthcare professionals, healthcare organizations, patients, patient organizations, government officials and payors) on behalf of Baxter, all suppliers, dealers, distributors, agents and other third parties must adhere to any industry standard of conduct that applies to them (such as AdvaMed, MedTech and EFPIA Code of Practice).
- Any benefit provided to a member of the medical community on behalf of Baxter must comply with all applicable legal and industry code requirements in the country in which the member of the medical community resides and/or practices medicine. Payments or other benefits may never be used as a bribe, reward, inducement or incentive for sales.

FAIR COMPETITION AND ANTITRUST

- Suppliers must comply with all applicable laws and regulations regarding fair competition and antitrust.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- All Suppliers requiring the exchange of confidential information with Baxter are required to execute a confidentiality agreement with Baxter in advance.
- Exchange of confidential information is limited to that required to fulfill contracted performance requirements.
- Suppliers shall not share Baxter's intellectual property or confidential information or any other information that they acquire with respect to Baxter's business (including information developed by Suppliers and information relating to products, customers, suppliers, pricing, costs, know-how, strategies, programs, processes, and practices).
- Suppliers must immediately report unauthorized disclosure of Baxter's confidential information, whether inadvertent or not, through the Ethics & Compliance Helpline at www.baxter.com.

DATA PRIVACY

- Supplier must abide by all applicable data privacy laws and regulations when handling personal information.
- Supplier must reasonably cooperate and support Baxter in complying with applicable data privacy laws, including data subject rights and responding to government, regulatory or other data protection authority inquiries or investigations.
- Supplier may only process personal information in accordance with Baxter's instructions to perform the services which are outlined in an underlying written agreement and/or privacy contract, and not for ancillary or other independent purposes unrelated to the services being provided.
- Supplier must immediately report any unauthorized processing, use, disclosure, destruction, alteration, access or loss, or suspected or actual breach of Baxter related personal information in a timely manner, and in accordance with applicable data privacy laws, through the Ethics & Compliance Helpline at www.baxter.com.
- Supplier must execute written contracts with any subcontractors, subprocessors or agents who assist in the performance of services to Baxter, which shall contain at least the same protections afforded personal information as the contract with Baxter.

IT IS CRITICAL THAT ALL BAXTER SUPPLIERS SHARE OUR COMMITMENT TO BUSINESS WITH INTEGRITY

- Supplier must ensure the implementation of appropriate technical, administrative and procedural safeguards with respect to the processing of personal information.
- Supplier must return or destroy all personal information at the termination of services and pursuant to the underlying contract.

EMPLOYMENT PRACTICES GUIDELINES

- Suppliers must comply with Baxter's Global Human Rights Policy, including no child labor, no forced/bonded labor, and no discrimination, harassment or retaliation.
- Suppliers must comply with all applicable employment laws and regulations.
- Suppliers will not possess, use or distribute unlawful drugs, including marijuana, or unlawfully possess, use or distribute lawful drugs on Baxter property, or perform work for Baxter under the influence of alcohol or drugs.
- Suppliers shall not produce or manufacture products or services (or incorporate any materials therein that have been produced or manufactured) in violation of laws governing workers' human rights, including human trafficking and slavery. Regular full-time employees are to be at least 18 years of age. Suppliers must disclose the existence of part-time work, summer jobs, or apprenticeship programs for individuals under the age of 18 to Baxter's management.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- A conflict of interest arises when personal interests or activities influence, or appear to influence, the ability to act in the best interests of Baxter. Some situations that could cause a conflict of interest include, but are not limited to:
 - Having a significant financial investment in any company that competes, does business, or seeks to do business with Baxter. A significant financial interest includes voting control, or an ownership of more than 1% of the outstanding capital of a business, or an investment that represents more than 5% of the investor's total assets.
 - Providing similar services for direct competitors of Baxter, with access to confidential or competitive information.
 - When supplier's family members (or domestic partners, or those personally close to you) work for Baxter, another Baxter supplier, Baxter customer or Baxter competitor.
- Suppliers must disclose any apparent or actual conflicts of interest to Baxter's management or Baxter may reserve the right to take any necessary actions for the failure of doing so. If Baxter management approves an apparent or actual conflict, the approval decision must be documented.

MOBILE DEVICES, ELECTRONIC MEDIA, INTERNET AND E-MAIL USE

In those circumstances where Suppliers have access to Baxter's electronic environment (Intranet, e-mail, voicemail or other), Suppliers shall:

- Protect Baxter's confidential information and electronic media;
- Encrypt or password protect data;
- Keep mobile devices with you or locked while traveling;
- Comply with local data protection laws;
- Use these tools for Baxter business purposes only; and
- Use these tools consistent with Baxter's Global Acceptable Use of Information and Technology Policy including:
 - Do not knowingly download, view or forward materials of a discriminatory, harassing, threatening, sexual, pornographic, racist, sexist, defamatory or otherwise offensive nature. Electronic media must be primarily used for business purposes.
 - Do communicate protected information (personal or trade secret) in a way that recognizes the sensitivity of the information, possibility of unauthorized access, and compliance to local data protection laws. Suppliers will be responsible for keeping Baxter-given password(s) secret.
 - Realize that documents, software, e-mails and other web pages could bring damaging computer viruses into Baxter's network. Do not knowingly detach, decompress, run/launch or install any files or programs on Baxter's systems or open attachments that have damaging computer viruses. Do not download or disseminate any material from the Internet unless the copyright owner has provided consent.
 - Adhere to the timing and methods for retention and elimination of Baxter company data stored on electronic media.

TRADE COMPLIANCE

- Suppliers must comply with the letter and spirit of all applicable import and export controls, sanctions, and other trade compliance laws of the United States and the laws of the applicable country(ies) where the transaction(s) occur(s).

ENVIRONMENT, HEALTH & SAFETY

- Suppliers are expected to comply with all applicable laws and regulations regarding environment, health and safety.
- Suppliers working with Baxter or onsite at a Baxter location must work in a way that assures their own safety and the safety of others and in compliance with applicable Baxter and governmental environmental, health and safety requirements. Any emergencies that may impact Baxter must be reported promptly.

GIFTS & ENTERTAINMENT

Gifts and entertainment are not needed in order to conduct business with Baxter and are highly discouraged.

ETHICS & COMPLIANCE STANDARDS FOR BAXTER SUPPLIERS

IT IS CRITICAL THAT ALL BAXTER SUPPLIERS SHARE OUR COMMITMENT TO BUSINESS WITH INTEGRITY

- The following situations are always inappropriate and are expressly prohibited:
 - Giving a gift, entertainment, or preferred treatment with the intention of trying to influence the decision-making objectivity of a Baxter employee.
 - Offering any gift, entertainment, or preferred treatment while involved in a current purchasing or contracting decision process (RFI, RFQ, RFP).
 - Any gift of currency including “gift cards.”
 - Offering entertainment where the Supplier will not be present/represented (e.g., sports/event tickets).
 - Offering extravagant recreational outings, travel, or lodgings at supplier sponsored events.
- On a rare and infrequent basis Baxter employees may accept very modest gifts, entertainment, or other business courtesies if it helps improve the business relationship and they would be able to reciprocate in equal value. These must typically be pre-approved by Baxter.
- Baxter employees are not permitted to solicit suppliers for gifts including gifts to support charitable causes.
- Suppliers shall not offer an opportunity to purchase products, services, or a financial interest to any Baxter employees under terms not available to all Baxter employees.
